No. 81 of A Series . . .

Only 9 More Shopping Days Until Christmas

Make them count for the most, by doing business in Appomattox, with your home-community friends. These nine days are going to slip by awfully fast. You won't have a minute to spare. Think what a big help to you and what a real savings in time it will mean to shop in Appomattox. Not that we won't have crowds of shoppers here too, just as in the big cities . . . but your parking is no problem, and friends gladly serve you. And while the Christmas shopping is being done, you can also visit our banks, appliance dealers, building material, timber and farm equipment and supply dealers, to attend to other necessary business. Appomattox is your best "one-stop-does-it-all" trading center. And bear in mind, that when you trade at home and keep all the business possible in your home community, you are helping to build that home community. That's why we say so often, "Appomattox is a Growing Town." And it is YOU making it grow . . . you and the dollars you earn and spend in Appomattox. Every local institution from the church to the school benefits from business done here. Through the past year, as in all the years before, we have sought diligently to improve our services to you, so that together we might build a better community. Teamwork and cooperation are wonderful community goals.

Mark This Date

On Thursday, December 27, the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Appomattox, at Liberty Baptist Church. A minimum of 100 donors are sought for this visitation. Donor pledge cards are now available, with J. Newton Jennings chairman of the Recruitment Committee. We urge you to support this program . . . which supports Appomattox.

NO METERS THERE

Austin, Texas.- Parking meters just won't stay put in front of a University of Texas men's dormitory. Placed there by the police department, they are yanked out before the concrete base hardens, and some meters just disappear.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Just Call Me Cupid

The counter down at Pete's was full yesterday, except for three seats near the end, so I plunked myself down on the middle one.

As I took my first sip of coffee a cute young couple came in—a girl in her early twenties followed by a fellow perhaps a year or two older. Without saying a word, they took the only two seats left—on either side of me.

Remembering my younger days, I insisted the young man take my seat so's they could be together. He hesitated at first, then finally he shrugged, grinned and said to the girl, "Well, let's make him happy. My name's 'Ricky'. What's yours?"

From where I sit, there was no harm done that time, but jumping to conclusions can be embarrassing. In fact, it's sometimes mean and intolerant—like the way some folks jump to the conclusion a man's "wrong" to prefer a glass of beer over another beverage. Lack of facts coupled with lack of judgment introduces trouble.
